Navigator 905 Bamboo/Wood

Wireless BlueEye Notebook Mouse

Genius ®
Live with Ideas

Genius introduces another fashionable device to its BlueEye wireless mouse line – Navigator 905 in a bamboo or wood cover. It's an eco-friendly design that everyone should have on their desk.

The natural wood and bamboo design distinguishes itself from an ordinary mouse and features auto-connection and frequency hopping technology to prevent interference. The innovative 1200 dpi BlueEye tracking technology uses an advanced optical engine that works on almost every surface and performs far better than any regular optical mouse. The plug and forget Pico receiver is storable inside the mouse which is convenient while traveling. The Stick-N-Go mount lets you attach your mouse to you notebook to prevent it from dropping and the 2-in-One slot is ideal for storing the Stick-N-Go mount and the receiver.
